A letter has been received here from George D. Antice, dated New York, Nov. 26, stating:

had nothing to do with theistic in the title. The Journal censuring the speech of Cameron at the dinner given by Forney in honor of Prentice. The article was written no doubt by some person who had seen Cameron's speech, but by a person without the knowledge of Prentice. Secretary Cameron's opinions are entirely with those expressed in the instructions to Generals Butler and Sherman, and will be reiterated in his report to the President.

The Ordnance Department of the Navy finds considerable difficulty in getting transportation of heavy guns from point to point.

The last official accounts of the whereabouts of the privateer Sumpter are from the Consul at Havana. It was there, he says, when she was on there, about 30 miles off Curacao.

NEW YORK, NOV. 1.

The Legislature of Mississippi has passed a bill authorizing the Governor to call out an optional number of volunteers for service at Columbus, appropriating $500,000 therefor. The Governor of Georgia has appointed Henry Jackson, of Georgia, Major-General and Wm. E. Waller a Brigadier-General of the Georgia Y. The Galveston Citizen, reports the capture of pirate Rollo Yacht by the Federal steamer Texas. All the crew are prisoners.

The Galveston Courier of the 26th reports the sinking of the Federal troops at Buckingham, on main land, the rebel forces had made a forward movement.

The Richmond Despatch has a telegram datedannah, the 26th, saying that Com. Tatnal, with three small steamers, attacked the Federal fleet in the harbor Koskor last yesterday. The engagement lasted an hour. About fifty shots were fired. None on our side injured.

Despatch to the New York Times says that a ern gentlemen, who has resided in Mississippi for three years, arrived here yesterday and for the first time in Memphis a fortnight ago there were 10,000 troops for the city and the place above and below it. At Nashville there is a large force of armed and clothed troops, nearly all from Gulf States, with the avowed intention to take Kentucky a battle field. The 30,000 additional troops called for by Gov. Harris would be as a reserve. No fears were expressed of insurrection. The feeling in East Tennessee is unanimous for the Union as that in Middle Western Tennessee is for the rebels.

It is probable that the President will not communicate his message to-morrow before 10 o'clock.

ports of the Secretaries of War and Navy carry the message. The reports of the rebel will not be sent in till Tuesday or Wednesday. No advance copies of the message were transmitted. It will therefore be telegraphed during the present week. The rebel has been reported at Vienna, five miles from Summerville, and also at Flint Hill, which looks Fairfax Court-house. They show no intention to attack our men.
